The USAF Band of Mid-America's Concert Band will present a concert at the Howard Performing Arts Center on the campus of Andrews University on Monday, April 8, at 7 p.m.

Admission is free and open to the public, but tickets are required. Please visit howard.andrews.edu for tickets.

Presented in partnership with the Howard Performing Arts Center, this is a family-friendly, all-ages event.

The United States Air Force Band of Mid-America Concert Band represents the professionalism and excellence found every day throughout the Air Force. This diverse, 45-piece ensemble's repertoire ranges from symphonic band masterworks, to traditional marches, to modern compositions, to pops and jazz. During a concert, you are likely to hear stirring works from contemporary composers as well as the familiar sounds of John Philip Sousa or Major Glenn Miller. The band also features talented vocal soloists, performing a wide variety of popular, classical and patriotic selections.
